

"Governments do not govern, but merely control the machinery of government, being themselves controlled by the hidden hand." - B. Disraeli.

Common Sense®

Trade-mark registered 1948 United States Patent Office

! "The truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth ... without fear or favor"

Conde McGinley
1890 • FOUNDER • 1963

Issue No. 591, October 15, 1971

Second Class Postage Paid at Union, N.J.

Subscription $3.00 per year

EAST-WEST CONFRONTATION

MADNESS ON MT. ZION

By FRED FARREL

The Zionists are not really much interested in the East-West cold war. To them, it is a mere nuisance which ought to go away. It won't go away, of course; but the Jews think that it really should. Their intellectuals and hack writers in New York pronounce endless incantations against it. The Jews are a small nation. Their techniques of power must necessarily be intellectual techniques. They cannot afford to become involved in a brute-force confrontation between two great land masses with vast populations. They are more interested in penetrating each great land mass from within, undermining its native culture, and establishing an intellectual control system, the rule of money power and organized intellectual power. The Jewish power system is obsolete. It belongs to the nineteenth century, when money and intellect really counted for something. In today's brute force age, it counts for nothing. The Jewish style of power is dead. Brute force is back, and the Jews simply cannot compete in this league.

Depends on Cold War

The success of Zionism depended absolutely upon the termination of the cold war. It depended upon the merger of the U.S.A. and the U.S.S.R. into a single world power system. The cheapjack, traitorous, jackal politicians of the U.S.A. were perfectly willing, indeed eager, to enter into such a merger. They were ready to put American patriotism down the drain, to make an end of our national independence, to interbreed us with other races, to wipe out our basic culture and political system. There was no act of treason, treachery, duplicity, or sell-out which our ratty politicians were not prepared to commit against us. Only one thing prevented them. Russia coldly rejected the merger. Russia chose to continue the East-West cold war. Russia refused to accept the world system envisioned by the American-Jewish ruling class.

The Jews consider the cold war obsolete. It belongs to the old days of the Goyim, the bad old time before the Messianic age arrived. Jewish power is not like unto Goy power. Both Russia and the U.S.A. should submit to the rule of "superior" Jewish masters, who indeed lack the numbers to rule the world by brute force, but have designed intellectual systems which are supposed to be infallible sources of power. Nevertheless, the East-West confrontation continues. It has been going on a long time, and it will not suddenly vanish merely to accommodate the Jews.

Back in 1904 the British author Louis Livingston Seaman wrote: "The time will come, perhaps not in your day nor mine, when, unless Europe and America unite to check Muscovite ambition, it will not only grasp effete nations in its path on the Asiatic continent, but with the hordes thus brought under its control will overrun the

RALPH ABERNATHY, asking who will boycott stores in Montgomery, Ala. Abernathy is a black mercenary and revolutionary, who was chased from his church by an irate hatchet-wielding husband who had accused Abernathy of having illicit relations with his wife. The Montgomery Advertiser (5-6-68) made the following statement regarding Abernathy: "... a demagogue worse than Stokeley Carmichael if only because he's so stupid; a degenerate unfit to lead the smallest rural church ..."

civilization of Europe as did the Hun and Goth, the visigoth and vandal of old." Seaman wrote this in his book "Through Manchuria with the Japanese," during the Russo-Japanese War of 1904-1905. Already, even then, the western nations were playing the same game Nixon is playing today, setting Asian nations against Russia in the east.

On March 6, 1856, Comm. M. C. Perry, U.S.N., said in a speech before the American Geographical and Statistical Society: "The last act of the drama is yet to be unfolded. The people of America will, in some form or other, extend their dominion and their power upon the eastern shores of Asia. And I think too, that eastward and southward will her great Russian rival stretch forth her power to the coasts of China and Siam; and thus the Saxon and the cossack will meet once more, in strife or in friendship, on another field. Will it be in friendship? I fear not! The antagonistic exponents of freedom and absolutism must thus meet at last, and then will be fought that mighty battle on which the world will look with breathless interest; for on its issue will depend the freedom or the slavery of the world."

The east-west confrontation has absolutely nothing to do with communism or capitalism, with right wing or left wing. It is a massive geopolitical confrontation which existed in czarist times and exists today. Let us give the Jews credit where credit is due. They have tried their best to conjure away this great historic confrontation with Jewish magic. They have tried to get control of both the U.S.A. and the U.S.S.R., so that they could rule both nations, and thus avoid any showdown between them. In the Messianic Age, in the great pax judaica, there is no room for these vulgar goy antics. The Jews have tried, with great sincerity and

(Continued on Page 3, Column 1)

Frame-Up in Butler, Alabama

Common Sense Goes to Butler
For Study of Black Warfare

By CARL LYONS

BUTLER, Alabama is a thriving community ranking fifth in the State in per capita income. Butler is the county seat of Choctaw County situated on the fringe of the Black Belt in central western side of Alabama bordering the State of Mississippi. Timber is "King" and the many by-products provide the industrious people with modern facilities in community cultures. There are beautiful homes, updated hospitalization, the telephone system of tomorrow, public schools second to none, well kept streets, and an affluent church life. There are fewer dilapidated automobiles touring the county than the usual run-of-affairs; notably, the black community shares in the new modern transportation and new housing. Talk with the "old timers" on religion and you hear a fundamental discussion on evangelism. This imbued legacy is the heritage from the pioneering spirit, and, where a man's word is his bond.

Butler has recently been plagued with political sniper warfare, infused agitation from a neighboring county where blacks fill elected offices, a black sheriff with two black deputies, and the black probate judge appeared in a Choctaw County Negro church urging blacks to boycott the schools and merchants. Apart from the black demonstrators, the black traffic in Butler was limited to paying utility bills, and converging on the Welfare Depot where Food Stamps have become a way-of-life. Earlier, in a heated confrontation, the County Officials, objecting to a Federalized welfare program within the county, had been told by OEO officials, "You're gonna get food stamps whether you want them or not, you have no alternative." Thus, this federalized dictation makes Butler, Alabama a Butler, U.S.A., viz-a-viz, the breadth of the land becomes totally federalized socialization.

Sieged by thirteen weeks of black picketing and the growing storm of resentment, tensions, and incommunicable relations, along with a stalemated law-and-order curriculum, white citizens tiring of the abuse and the interference by Negroes affecting the norm of routine, began a zig-zag traffic through the picket lines to attend to necessary business. A white woman on a mission for medical supplies with her mother and two babies parked their car on the courthouse square, attended to her purchases, returned to her car, but, she was prohibited by the blacks from leaving the area. Driving to one end of the square, she was turned around by a wall of black human flesh to proceed to the other end of the square; she found herself in a merry-go-round predicament, held by a massive animalistic hopped-up savage horde who commandeered the streets of Butler. Relief for this white

(Continued on Page 2, Column 1)